
Summary and Objective

IT professional with over 25 years of experience in managing various projects, web sites, and applications with emphasis on designing and developing cost saving enterprise solutions utilizing both legacy and cutting-edge software tools and systems. Looking to obtain a software developer position that allows me to continue to learn new technologies while utilizing my experience developing web-based applications as well as my knowledge of ASP, HTML, and JavaScript.

Technical skills

Languages

- Proficient in: ASP, VB6, HTML, JavaScript, Web Development
- Familiar with: VB.NET, ASP.NET, Shell Script, CSS, CLIPPER (S '87), XML, JSON

Software & Technologies

- Database: Microsoft SQL Server (7, 2000), Oracle, dBASE III+, MS-Access
- Platforms: Microsoft Windows, IIS 6.0, UNIX
- Other: Microsoft Visual Studio, Microsoft Office, Microsoft SharePoint, Extjs JavaScript library, Prototype 6.0 JavaScript library

Project Management

- Internal project management and Software Development Lifecycle (REF)
- Completed Learning Tree's Project Management Overview class

Experience

Sr. Business Systems Analyst

August 1995 – Present

Bridgestone Retail Operations, LLC –Bloomington, IL

- Organized and managed multiple intranet web development projects.
- Designed and developed company-wide report repository tool.
- Managed IT resources and budget efficiently while implementing a purchased Lease Management software application; with continuing on-demand support. Including the creation of several support applications and processes.
- Designed, created, and maintain internal Quality Assurance program processes and web sites.
- Responsible for creation and management of corporate Intranet, including addition of new sites.
- Led team in migration of corporate Intranet to new servers.
- Participated on team to design and develop a business portal for corporate Loss Prevention to use as a profiling and preventative modeling tool. Currently managing enhancement project for same tool.
- Managed project to create a barcode scanning process of physical inventory in 1500+ retail locations; including hardware selection and software creation to achieve a 34% reduction in time necessary to perform a physical inventory.
- Managed design and development of an Environmental Management System using cutting edge AJAX technologies. Conducted and directed team and business owner meetings, created and maintain design documents from concept to implementation.
- Developed and maintain on-line Education testing portal.
- Worked on and developed end-of-day processing programs for point-of-sale system.
- Member of IT department Project Manager Forum. Utilizing internal project management and SDLC (REF) processes

Robert C. McColl

<http://www.linkedin.com/in/robmccoll>

Robert_mccoll@hotmail.com

Experience – continued

Systems Engineer

June 1994 – August 1995

Facility Management Systems – Lincolnwood, IL

- Maintained existing proprietary wireless barcode scanning applications and associated Clipper programs.
- Responsible for re-design and implementation to replace inefficient wireless scanner communication processes.
- Contributing member of a team of programmers collaborating on product enhancements and corrections for both internal and external clients.

Computer Programmer

June 1987 – June 1994

The Oak Agency – Elmhurst, IL

- Maintained existing and developed new customized code for individual clients.
- Complete responsibility for maintenance and development of in-house commission and customer tracking systems.
- Held key roles in design and implementation of new applications
- Eventually became responsible for assigning daily work activities to programming staff.

Education

Western Governor's University

February 2009 – Present

Salt Lake City, UT

- Anticipated graduation date: August, 2012
- Bachelors of Science - Information Technology Management

College of Du Page

Fall 1984 – December 2008

Glen Ellyn, IL

- Major: Computer Science
- GPA: 3.5 / 4.00

Affiliations & Interests

- Boy Scouts of America - Cubmaster and Den Leader, Pack and District Popcorn Kernel
- Valid Illinois State Real Estate Salesperson License

References

Available upon request